

CMEA 2021 Virtual Conference

A Conference Designed Just For YOU!

The conference was built for you! From our daily content strands to recorded individual sessions, to live headliner presentations- the content was crafted for you.

Worried that there will not be Nationally Recognized Headliners- don't worry, they are still coming to our virtual conference:

Scott Lang- Tri-M Keynote and Leadership Keynote
David Rickels- College/University Council
Andy Beck-General Music Council
ROCKE- Headliner Names coming soon- General Music Council
West Music Headliner Names coming soon- General Music Council
Yo Goto- Concert Band- Instrumental Council
Soon Hee Newbold- ASTA/Instrumental Council
Carol Krueger- Vocal Council

40 Breakout Sessions that are recorded and can be watched when they fit your schedule during the day.

Want to visit with an exhibitor- three curated sessions are planned by like vendor services at 5 pm on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Longing for a discussion with other music educators? Each day ends with a Daily Synthesis/Knowledge Exchange providing you an opportunity to talk with your colleagues, share things you learned from the day, and ask the presenters questions.

Worried, you can't tune-in. Not to worry! As a registered attendee, you'll have access to all conference content for one full year.

See the link below to check the draft schedule (note- some information will be updated throughout the month with an interactive schedule launching in early December).
